

Long Islander Newspapers will publish a color commemorative edition on all of the people, places and things that make life in the Town of Huntington great.

Our writers are combing the town – from Cold Spring Harbor to Northport, from Huntington to Dix Hills and Melville – to find all of the town’s best kept secrets: that great slice of pizza, outstanding sushi, spectacular sunsets...

Our readers will get in on the act, too. We’ve asked them to tell us about their personal favorites: where to get the best burger... where’s your favorite beach... who makes the best cup of Joe...?

The results will be published in our comprehensive “Best of Huntington” edition of Life.
